There are two entrances at Fleet Farm and we will cover both sets of doors and one at the Cub Foods site (near Crossroad Church and Cedar and Dodd). The first shift may need to await delivery of the bells and kettles. The final shift of 5 to 7 p.m. may end early depending upon when the Salvation Army comes to pick up the kettles. If there are issues, call 612.363.7973, it is the Harbor Light Worship and Community Center, who administers this bell ringing location.
